CHEF MARTHA PALACIOS

Executive Chef, Jarana Aventura

With a vibrant career spanning over two decades, Martha Palacios has honed her culinary skills across South America, bringing flavors to life in Peru, Colombia, Argentina, and Chile. Before assuming her current role as Executive Chef at Gastón Acurio's Aventura-based restaurant, Jarana, she was the driving force behind Panchita—another celebrated dining establishment under the award-winning Acurio International brand.

Born in Lima, Peru, Martha's passion for gastronomy was nurtured at San Ignacio de Loyola University. She initially began her career in administration but soon discovered her true calling in the culinary world—a decision that has since filled her life with success and fulfillment. Martha credits her growth to the influential lessons learned at Acurio International, the unwavering support of her parents, and the teachings of her grandmothers from Cusco and Lima. Their wisdom extended beyond recipes, imparting the essence of cooking with love—a philosophy Martha cherishes and practices to this day.

Her international exposure is vast, including a significant decade spent in Japan. Martha played a pivotal role in launching La Mar by Gastón Acurio in Mexico and made long-standing contributions as brand manager at Panchita, demonstrating her versatility and dedication. In her leadership role at Jarana, Martha presents a menu that showcases authentic Peruvian cuisine, designed to bring people together over delightful dishes, enticing cocktails, and unforgettable experiences. With Martha at the helm, every meal at Jarana is an invitation to explore the rich, flavorful world of Peruvian gastronomy.

At her core, Martha's love for cooking drives her. She finds joy in the bustling environment of the kitchen, the satisfaction of her team, and the happiness of her guests. Her accolades include being named "Best Female Chef" in 2022 by El Comercio, one of Peru's leading newspapers, as well as receiving the prestigious El Comercio "Light of Commerce Award" in 2018.

Outside the kitchen, Martha is a devoted mother and wife, treasuring moments with her family. Whether cooking at home, exploring new experiences, or unwinding with a good TV series, her life is a harmonious blend of passion, commitment, and love—much like her cooking.
